MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS WITHOUT PAYMENT OF COSTS
AFFIDAVIT

APPELLANT, Olga Ogrod, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says in support of Motion for Leave to Proceed without being required to repay costs or fees:

1. She is involved in multiple litigation and has reached poverty after twelve years of payment of legal fees.
2. She is involved in multiple costs involving this action as stated above.
3. The nature of the case is briefly stated as follows:

On March 29, 1983, Appellant filed a DISCRIMINATION IN HOUSING COMPLAINT in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Penna. On March 30, 1982, Tomlinson Ct. Apts. started eviction proceedings in Municipal Court - - Appellant filed Removal Action (above numbered appeals) Municipal Court continued actions for Eviction in spite of DISCRIMINATION IN HOUSING COMPLAINT AND SUPERSEDEAS BONDS.

PHILA. FAIR HOUSING COMMISSION continued their actions in spite of Supersedeas and Appeal to Commonwealth Court allowing Tomlinson Ct. Apts. to proceed with Eviction.

I believe I am entitled to the redress I seek in said cause.

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

(A) QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. This case was removed under 28 USC 1443 (1) under CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964- thus Remand to State Court while a Discrimination in Housing Complaint exists in Federal Court is directly appealable to the U. S. Supreme Court.
2. Said Remand should have been decided by a three-judge panel as required by Civil Rights Act of 1964.
3. The United States Court of Appeals cannot review an order which should have been decided by a three-judge panel as per Civil Rights Act of 1964.
4. Appellant, Olga Ogrod, has a different lease than any other present tenant at said Apartment Complex. One other tenant Walter Loschenko of same national origin was discriminated against three years with same lease as Appellant and was evicted for having a small dog while adjoining tenant had ten cats. (att. Append.). Appellant, also, is only tenant required to have a co-signer because at time she was receiving child support.
5. Judgment Order of December 30, 1982 dismissing appeals is not valid for two reasons -28 USC 1447 (d) is reviewable when actions were removed per 28 USC 1443(1). (CIVIL RIGHTS ACT) 1964
The Court of Appeals does not have jurisdiction to review an order made by a single judge which should have been made by a 3-judge panel.

6. Can Municipal Court continue Eviction Proceedings while a Supersedeas Bond is filed with an Appeal from Remand prior to Eviction Proceedings and another Removal with Bond?
7. Can the United States District Court return records to State Court during Appeal and refuse to send same to U. S. Supreme Court without a Court Order- same records requested April 19, 1983 ? Is this a violation of my Civil Rights NOT having the court record in hands of Supreme Court during an appeal?
8. Can U. S. District Court by a single judge make an order on the related Discrimination in Housing case denying me right to Entrance of Default Judgment against Appellees for Answer to Complaint filed five (5) months out of time? Discrimination in Housing Complaint on appeal to U. S. Supreme Court.

Rights.

12-30-82-Order of U. S. Court of Appeals is contrary to Civil Rights Act of 1964 as same was removed per 1443(1) 28 USC and as such is reviewable.

(E) GROUND ON WHICH JURISDICTION OF COURT IS INVOKED

The case as captioned falls within the Jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court per CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964 FAIR HOUSING ACT OF April 11, 1968 PL 90-284 (DISCRIMINATION IN HOUSING - NATIONAL ORIGIN). Said case removed from State Court per 1443 (1) 28 USC and falls within CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964 to be heard by a three-judge panel and direct appeal to U. S.
Supreme Court.

On December order of U. S. Court of Appeals denied review stating case not reviewable per 28 U.S.C. 1447(d) -
1447 (d) 28 U.S.C. states except if case is removed per 28 USC
1443. (Civil Rights). This order is not valid and must be

NO. C.A. 82-1294 and 82-1359

NO. D.C. 82-1626 (REMOVAL) Per 1443 (1) 28 USC

The CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964 sustains this court's jurisdiction as case was removed per Civil Rights 28 USC 1443 (1). Also, Fair Housing Act of April 11, 1968 PL 90-284 (Discrimination in Housing - National Origin) and 28 U.S.C. 1331.

(F) CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 (28 USC 1447 - 1443 (1)) Cases removed under the Civil Rights Act are reviewable per said statute directly to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Discrimination in Housing Complaint for discrimination per national origin falls within the Fair Housing Act of April 11, 1968 PL 90-284 and is an important Federal question.

(G) CONCISE STATEMENT

Appellant asked per 28 USC 1443 (1) to have a state court action removed for violation of Civil Rights. United States District Court remanded case to Municipal Court while a Discrimination in Housing Complaint exists. Appellant appealed same remand prior to Municipal Court proceedings with a Supersedeas Bond, but Municipal Court continued its actions and Appellant filed another appeal in U. S. Court of Appeal. U. S. Court combined both appeals and dismissed same as not reviewable per 1447 d.

(H) The Remand Order while a Discrimination in Housing Complaint is in violation of Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Fair Housing Act of 1968. The questions are Constitutional questions protected by Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Fair Housing Act of 1968 and require briefs on merits and oral argument.

COMPLAINT

Now CCYE Olga Ogorod, Plaintiff and complains of Defendants
as follows:

1. This action arises under 42 U.S.C. s. 1982 and 42 U.S.C. s. 3604. Jurisdiction is conferred on this Court by 28 U.S.C. s. 1343 (4) and s. 2201 and 42 U.S.C. s. 3612.
2. Plaintiff is a citizen of the United States of Ukrainian ethnic background who presently resides at Tomlinson Court Apartments, 1761 Foster Street, Philadelphia, Pa. and has continuously resided at same location since July 1, 1971.
3. Upon information and belief, George C. Weiss is the Manager for Tomlinson Ct. Apts. and Defendant James Kravitz is the Owner of Apartment Building located at 1761 Foster Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
4. On September 30, 1981, at the Philadelphia Fair Housing Hearing before the Philadelphia Fair Housing Commission, Defendant George C. Weiss refused to renew Plaintiff's lease, stating three times in presence of competent witnesses: "I Do Not Like Her, Or Her Son or His Rabbi

CONCLUSIONS

On July 1, 1964, Plaintiff agreed with Trans World Entertainment, Inc. ("TWE") that TWE would supply Plaintiff with the underlying program within ninety days of the receipt of the payment of $10,000. Plaintiff was to receive the program within ninety days of the receipt of the payment of $10,000. Plaintiff was to receive the program within ninety days of the receipt of the payment of $10,000.

5. At the time of said refusal, prior to and continuing to present time, defendant George C. Weiss has continuously harassed Plaintiff and son. During entire period of occupancy, Defendant George C. Weiss never painted Plaintiff's apartment, stating each time requested: "You Missed Your Turn!". Windows to said apartment were completely covered with shrubbery that had grown in eleven years obstructing the view from inside and out, in violation of Plaintiff and son's safety allowing a would-be burglar to try to gain entry without detection. On 2-7-50, Plaintiff caught someone as they were about to enter the apartment, reported it to police who suggested that they be cut down. George C. Weiss, Defendant refused to cut same down stating: "They Look Pretty!" and only when Plaintiff initiated complaint with Philadelphia Fair Housing Commission did he begin to cut same down.

Repairs and maintenance of said unit have been neglected causing Plaintiff to reside in deplorable conditions with constant water leakage throughout unit, windows, ceilings, appliances, toilet, sinks, pipes, etc. causing permanent damage to Plaintiff's paintings, furniture and personal possessions.

6. In doing the acts and conduct herein complained of, Defendant acted intentionally and maliciously and was guilty of willful and wanton disregard of rights and feelings of Plaintiff and son.

7. Plaintiff is the only present tenant at said Apartment Complex with a lease that is "Different"- not allowing pets, while others are allowed all kinds of pets and birds. Two years ago, a tenant, Walter Loshenko, of Ukrainian ethnic background was, also, treated "Different" with a "No Pet" lease while an adjoining tenant of another ethnic background had ten cats.

8. In not renewing Plaintiff's lease, Mr. George C. Weiss, Manager, Defendant has steered Plaintiff to the areas and locals that Defendant felt would be more suitable for Plaintiff, even going so far as selecting the street that would be appropriate for her and her son even checking to see if there were available units on said street.

9. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law or otherwise for the harm done by Defendants. Plaintiffs have suffered and are continuing to suffer great and irreparable loss and injury including mental anguish, humiliation and embarrassment as a proximate result of the acts and conduct of Defendants herein complained of and will continue to so suffer unless Defendants are enjoined.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray:

(1) That the Court declare the Plaintiffs cannot be denied the right of lease renewal of unit in question on the grounds of ethnic background dislike.

(2) That the Court issue an injunction permanently restraining and enjoining Defendants from refusing to renew lease of said unit to Plaintiffs.

(3) That pending the final hearing and determination of this cause, the Court issue a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction restraining and enjoining Defendant, their officers, agents, employees and all those persons in active concert or participation with them, from constant harassment, and from refusing to renew lease of said unit to Plaintiffs.

(4) That the Court grant actual damages, punitive damages, reasonable attorney's fees and costs to be determined by a jury.

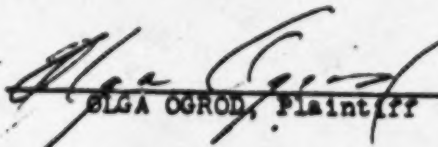

(5) That the Court grant such additional and further relief as may be just and proper.

ORDER

NOW, April 26, 1982 upon consideration of the petition for removal filed by Olga Ogrod and because:

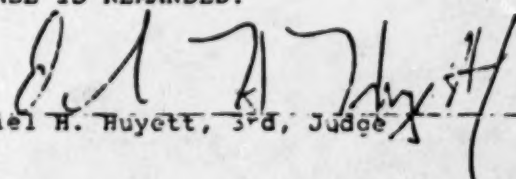

1. Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction.

For this reason, I am bound to dismiss sua sponte any action brought before me in which subject matter jurisdiction is lacking. C. Wright, Federal Courts 17-18 (1976).

2. The defendant attempted to remove to this court a landlord-tenant complaint filed in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia. An examination of defendant's removal petition and the attached landlord-tenant complaint does not reveal a basis for federal jurisdiction. The fact that the defendant intends to assert a defense which raises a federal question is not sufficient to support removal. 14 Wright, Miller, & Cooper, Federal Practice and Procedure § 3734 n.3

3. This court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over this action.

IT IS ORDERED THAT THE CASE IS REMANDED.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS WITHOUT PAYMENT OF COSTS OF PRINGING OF RECORD - AFFIDAVIT

APPELLANT, Olga Ogrod, being duly sworn according to law deposes and says in support of Motion for leave to Proceed without being required to repay costs of fees:

1. She is the Appellant and her Civil Rights are being violated under the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
2. She has reached poverty after twelve years of payment of legal costs. Appellant has paid all costs in lower court proceedings in multiple actions and is unable to pay costs of said cause nor give security for same.
3. I believe I am entitled to redress I seek in said cause.
4. The nature of said case is briefly stated. Appellant discriminated against because of her National Origin in a Discrimination in Housing Suit with a lease that is different. In an eviction, she had same removed to the U. S. District Court under Civil Rights Act of 1964. An Appeal has been timely filed in Removal Case, but the lower courts have continued actions and remanded record to state court instead of transmitting same to U. S. Supreme Court with multiple requests made.

(A) QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. This instant case is presently on Appeal under the Civil Rights Act of 1964 - U. S. Supreme Court 82-6720 28USC 1443(1) Removal. This instant case was granted a stay during Appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court if Appeal timely filed. Said Appeal timely filed with original mailing tolling the time. (see exhibit)
2. Is order made by a single judge of the U. S. District Court valid remanding record to state court instead of transmitting same to the U. S. Supreme Court where Civil Rights Appeal of 1964 is timely filed?
3. Does an Assistant Clerk in the U. S. Supreme Court have a right to rule on a Demand directed to the Justices of the U. S. Supreme Court? Does same clerk have authority to practice law while holding position as clerk?

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

(E) GROUND ON WHICH JURISDICTION OF COURT IS INVOKED

This case falls within the Civil Rights Act of 1964 with Removal per 1443 - Fair Housing Act of 1968 PL 90-284 (Discrimination in Housing - National Origin). Case is already on Appeal U.S. Supreme Court 82-6720 - timely filed on February 28, 1983 to stay mandate with request to transmit records.

The Civil Rights case of 1964 now on appeal 82-6720 filed within time to stay lower court proceedings has not done so and U. S. District Court and U. S. Court of Appeals have continued actions.

Order remanding record of April 18, 1983 is not valid as Appeal was timely filed on February 28, 1983.

(F) CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 (28 USC 1447-1443) (1) is unconstitutional as it does not seem to apply to people of all national origins. The Fair Housing Act of 1968 is unconstitutional as it does not apply to people of all national origins. The laws enacted by Congress do not seem to apply to all people.

The U. S. Supreme Court Rule PART VIII - Rule 28 -2 is not valid as it does not apply to all national origins.

Order made by a single judge remanding case to state court is in violation of all above stated and must be vacated, record transmitted to U. S. Supreme Court with a Recall of Mandate.

The Assistant Clerk does not have authority to practice law while

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

(G) CONCISE STATEMENT

Appellant has filed Appeal in Removal -TIMELY FILED ON Februzry 28, 1983. The lower courts do not have jurisdiction to continue actions during Appellants stay with Appeal timely filed. Order of April 18, 1983 remanding record to state court is unconstitutional and in violation of Appellant's Civil Rights under Civil Rights Act of 1964 - and made by a single judge. Appellant has made multiple formal requests for transmission of same to the U. S. Supreme Court.

(H) WHY QUESTIONS ARE SO SUBSTANTIAL

This involves the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Fair Housing Act of 1968 and the U. S. Supreme Court Rules - PART VIII -Rule 28-2 If any act or rule of court discriminates against a national origin it is unconstitutional.

Dear Ms. Ogrod:

Your application for recall and stay of mandate was received on June 13, 1983 and is herewith returned for failure to comply with Rule 44.4.

Before applying for recall and stay of mandate in this Court, it is necessary that you exhaust your lower court remedies by applying for a stay in the courts below. If you are denied a stay there, you may then make an application for a stay in this Court. If you do so, it will be necessary that you attach copies of the orders of the courts below denying a stay there.

Very truly yours,
